‘Tents in Town’ and urban Campout in Bellaire Town Square

PATRONS for Bellaire Parks and the City of Bellaire is hosting an urban campout “Tents in Town”, March 28th and 29th, 2009 to raise funds for Bellaire Town Square. Local community groups: the Bellaire Optimist Club, Girl Scout Troops 4766, 12480, 21015, and 21000, and Boy Scout Troop 222 and Cub Scout Pack 130 are also dedicating their time to help with this fun community event. Registration is going on now. Registration forms are available at PATRONS web site WWW.BELLAIREPARKS.COM, 713-661-PARK (7275) and at Bellaire Recreation Center, 7008 Fifth St, Bellaire, 713-662-8280.

“We are expecting Bellaire families, fathers, mothers and caregivers with their children to spend a fun filled afternoon and night in their own tents at Bellaire Town Square in Zindler Park,” reports PATRON Chair, Raina Newsome. “Families and friends will get together, pitch their tents and enjoy fun activities and games like obstacle courses, races, contests, crafts, face painting and more. There will event be a live Concert by Kids J.A.M followed by dinner, s’ mores and campfire songs. We’ll end the evening relaxing under the stars and finish up the next morning with breakfast,” adds Newsome.

“PATRONS is coordinating this event to help meet our commitment to the City of Bellaire for the next phase of funding for Bellaire Town Square,” notes PATRON President, Sharon Veldman. PATRONS is assisting the City to raise funds for the new Playground, Pavilion, Skate Park, and Donor Plaza with interactive water feature, and Great Lawn that are slated to be built in the next Phases of the Bellaire Town Square redevelopment project.

“Prospective campers are urged to register quickly. Space is limited! ,” urges Newsome.
